Dear Supporter,

Jenna Robinson Charities (JRC), a local 501(c)(3) non-profit organization, invites you to become a sponsor for our Tenth Annual Ballerina Ball. The charity was founded and named after Jenna Robinson, who passed away in April, 2016 at the age of 17 due to SUDEP (Sudden Unexplained Death in Epilepsy). Jenna lived with Epilepsy but her love and her life was dedicated to dance and the other performing arts.

The charity was established as the Jenna Robinson Scholarship Fund, which provided scholarships to those in the performing arts, and this continues today. Through her struggles and after her passing, Jenna's family became aware that there was a need in the area for supporting families living with epilepsy and the charity was started. Our focus has been expanded to include awareness and support of those families living with Epilepsy and awareness and prevention of SUDEP.

To do this we:

- Provide Scholarships for those in the Performing Arts field
- Help families meet their financial goal for seizure dogs
- Help families by providing financial assistance to obtain epilepsy monitoring systems
- Provide speakers when requested
- Support CURE Epilepsy, Sponsors of Partners Against Mortality in Epilepsy (P.A.M.E) and work with the Epilepsy Foundation
- Continue to be Patient Advocates for those living with Epilepsy
- Provide shared experiences with families who are currently living with epilepsy and connecting them with resources and services

Your sponsorship will assist in our ability to continue to provide services to our coastal families learning to live with Epilepsy. Enclosed please find information on the three sponsorship levels with reserved seating. In thanks for your sponsorship, your logo will be displayed on your table and in the video presentation during the event as well as on the Jenna Robinson Charities website, Facebook page and Instagram. If you are unable to attend and would like to be a generous supporter of our event there are three levels of Sponsorship donations. In thanks for your donation, your logo will be displayed on our sponsors board, on social media and a donation receipt will be provided. We would greatly appreciate any help you or your company is willing to donate to our event. Our staff is all volunteers, therefore the funds raised are used to support those families in need.

If you have any questions or need further information, please contact us at info@jennarobinsoncharities.org.
On behalf of Jenna Robinson Charities and the Robinson Family Thank You for your consideration and support.

Sincerely
